

Jamestown Evening Journal
July 28, 1897
Page 7

TOMORROW'S BOAT RACE

The Two Chadakoin Crews Will Contest for Supremacy.

Much interest attaches to the race between the senior and junior crews of the Chadakoin boat club which is to take place between Greenhurst and Celoron tomorrow afternoon. The start will be at 5 o'clock from opposite the dock at Greenhurst. The finish will be opposite the dock at Celoron and the distance is a mile and a half. The junior crew will have the northerly, or Fluvanna side of the course, and will be distinguished by blue rowing shirts. The senior crew will have the southerly or Lakewood side of the course and will wear blue and white shirts.